Savvy Girl is a smart and sassy little girl who loves to make people laugh. One day, she had to go to the dentist for the first time. Savvy was a little nervous, but she was also excited to see what it would be like.

When Savvy arrived at the dentist's office, she was greeted by a friendly dentist named Dr. Smith. Dr. Smith showed Savvy around the office and explained all of the different tools that he would be using. Savvy was fascinated by the suction machine and the drill.

Dr. Smith then asked Savvy to sit in the dentist's chair. Savvy was a little scared, but she bravely opened her mouth wide. Dr. Smith looked at Savvy's teeth and said, "You have very healthy teeth, Savvy. But I do see one little cavity."

Savvy was disappointed to hear that she had a cavity, but she knew that Dr. Smith would fix it. Dr. Smith numbed Savvy's mouth and then used the drill to remove the cavity. Savvy didn't feel a thing!

After Dr. Smith was finished, he gave Savvy a new toothbrush and floss. He also told her to brush and floss her teeth twice a day to keep them healthy.

Savvy was so proud of herself for being brave at the dentist. She couldn't wait to tell her friends all about her crazy visit.

The next day, Savvy went to school and told her friends all about her visit to the dentist. Her friends laughed and laughed at her stories. Savvy was glad that she could make her friends laugh, and she was also glad that she had learned the importance of taking care of her teeth.

Dr. Smith was a great dentist and he made Savvy's first visit to the dentist a fun and positive experience.
