Fate, once an ordinary young man, is thrust into a realm of chaos and bloodshed when he is summoned to the war-torn kingdom of Gaeabrande. Branded as a war criminal, he is condemned to a life of solitude and exile. But within his solitude, a profound transformation takes hold.

Fate awakens to the Gluttony Skill, a power that grants him the ability to consume anything and transform it into strength. As he devours monsters, objects, and even human flesh, his physical abilities soar, and his hunger becomes an unquenchable force. However, with great power comes a terrible curse: the more he consumes, the more his humanity diminishes.

Driven by an insatiable thirst for revenge against those who wronged him, Fate embarks on a perilous odyssey. With his newfound power, he slaughters his enemies mercilessly, leaving a trail of destruction in his wake. But as he revels in his vengeance, a profound realization dawns upon him.

The path of vengeance is a solitary one, fraught with darkness and despair. The more Fate consumes, the more he loses his grip on his sanity. Plagued by guilt and the weight of his actions, he begins to question the true meaning of his existence.

Amidst the chaos, Fate encounters companions who challenge his beliefs and offer him a glimmer of hope. There's Merry, a courageous healer who believes in his potential for redemption, and Roa, a mysterious woman who possesses her own dark secrets.

As Fate delves deeper into the labyrinthine world of Gaeabrande, he discovers a web of conspiracies and betrayals. A shadowy organization known as the Black Fang manipulates events from behind the scenes, seeking to plunge the kingdom into chaos.
