Only the kiss of a prince can break the enchantment.

Years later, the curse comes to pass, and the princess, now a young woman, falls into a century-long slumber. The kingdom falls into disarray as vines and thorns ensnare the castle. But hope remains, for a brave prince from a distant land hears of the sleeping beauty and sets out on a perilous journey to find and awaken her.

The prince's quest leads him through treacherous forests and across enchanted streams. Along the way, he encounters a host of obstacles, from the thorns that guard the castle to the treacherous creatures that lurk in the shadows. Yet, his determination remains unshaken, driven by the power of true love and the hope of breaking the princess's curse.

The Triumph of Love and the Return of Light

Finally, the prince reaches the castle and confronts the sleeping princess. With a trembling hand, he places a gentle kiss upon her lips, and the spell is broken.
